I would be interested in donating _____ hours per week month year

I am available Mon Tues Wed Thurs Fri Sat Sun

During these hours _____

I am available on short notice yes no on these days _____

I prefer to work alone with other people it doesn't matter

*Release sites are generally a minimum of 10 acres in size, not located near busy roads, not hunted or trapped, no more than an hour from the hospital and accessible with short or no notice. If checked, a Release Site Application will be forwarded to you for completion.

Fellow Mortals' volunteers give over 5,000 hours of skilled services every year, providing support that makes care possible for injured and orphaned wildlife.

A love for all creatures, from the smallest baby mouse to an elderly beaver, is what I witness each day that I volunteer at Fellow Mortals. The compassionate and knowledgeable Wildlife Rehabilitators and interns work long hours to help insure that each animal that is brought to them has a chance to heal and then be released.....Fellow Mortals is a wonderful organization doing an amazing job.
